Improved documentation

The Better Buildings Model mandates the documents the certifying authority must send to the consent authority, applicant, land owner and PCA. These tasks will be facilitated through the consent compliance report and BCA compliance report.

Why?

- Improved distribution of documents and certificates to all parties ensures all are aware of the requirements attached to the development consent and CC and enables better tracking of the approved plans throughout the construction process.