

Clause 13.2A application for private accreditation

For certifiers whose accreditation expired less than three months ago

Use this form if all of the following are correct:

- your BPB accreditation expired less than three months ago
- you are a private certifier (i.e. you do not have the word 'council' on your certificate of accreditation)
- you want to keep the same category and conditions (if any) of accreditation
- you have completed the required continuing professional development.

If your accreditation expired more than three months ago, you'll need to complete a new application and will be reassessed against the core performance criteria, specialty performance criteria, qualifications and experience requirements for the category you apply for.

 Yes No
20. Do you hold an equivalent authorisation that is subject to conditions imposed in the past 12 months as a result of any criminal, civil or disciplinary proceedings under the law of another State or Territory?
 Yes No

Interpretation

Equivalent authorisation means a certificate, accrediting registration or other authorisation or qualification issued or conferred under the laws of another State or Territory that enables the holder to undertake similar functions to the holder of a certificate of accreditation under the Building Professionals Act 2005.

Mentally incapacitated person means a person who is a temporary patient, a continued treatment patient or a forensic patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1900, or a protected person within the meaning of the Protected Estates Act 1983.

Excluded driving offence means an offence under the 'road transport legislation' (within the meaning of the Road Transport Act 2013), other than an offence:

- (a) that carries a term of imprisonment as a maximum penalty, or
- (b) that involves an element of fraud or dishonesty.

Spent convictions. An applicant is not required to disclose any 'spent conviction' as referred to in Part 2 of the Criminal Records Act 1991. A conviction becomes 'spent' in a number of different circumstances depending upon factors such as the nature of the offence involved and the relevant "crime free period" that applies to the offence. An example of one of the relevant crime free periods is a period of 10 consecutive years without a conviction. Another example is if an offence is found proven but no conviction is recorded, the matter is regarded as being spent immediately. If you have a conviction which may be spent, you should consult the Criminal Records Act 1991 or seek legal advice before completing this declaration.

Planning legislation means the following Acts and any regulation made under those Acts: Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979; Strata Schemes (Freehold Development) Act 1973; Strata Schemes (Leasehold Development) Act 1986; Protection of the Environment Operations Act 1997; Building Professionals Act 2005.

3. Professional indemnity insurance

Attach an original certificate of currency for your insurance (or a certified copy). The certificate must include, at minimum, all the information listed below.

I haven't yet purchased professional indemnity insurance and will do so when my application is assessed by the Board.

You can send in your application before you purchase insurance, but the Board won't issue a certificate of accreditation until it receives evidence of your insurance. You can't work as a certifier until you receive your certificate of accreditation.

Under section 61 of the Building Professionals Act you must notify the Board in writing within seven days of becoming aware of any change to your insurance that is relevant to your accreditation (such as ceasing to hold insurance).

If you're a contractor working for a company, you must have your own insurance.

Instructions for APPLICANTS

1. Give the following instructions to your insurance provider.
2. Carefully check the certificate you receive from your insurer has all the required details and is issued on the insurance company letterhead.

Instructions for INSURANCE PROVIDERS

Issue a certificate of currency on the insurance company's letterhead. The certificate must have all the following details:

- insurance company name
- confirmation that the insurance is professional indemnity insurance and covers statutory liability for accredited certifiers
- policy number
- name of the insured
- whether the policy is for an individual, company, or partnership
- policy start and end dates
- retroactive date
- two limits of indemnity:
 - a limit for any one claim, specifying whether it is inclusive/ exclusive of relevant expenses, and
 - a limit in respect of all claims made in any one year, specifying whether it is inclusive/ exclusive of relevant expenses
- the professions that the policy covers, and
- confirmation that the insurance has been issued.

For company or partnership contracts the certificate of currency must also include:

- how many accredited certifiers are directors/ partners or employees, as at the date on which the policy was issued, or
- if the policy is the fourth or subsequent policy issued, whether by the same or another insurer, the average number of certifiers who have been directors/ partners or employees, as at the date on which the policy was issued.

The Building Professionals Regulation 2007 defines statutory liability for accredited certifiers in clause 9 and relevant expenses in clause 14(5)(c).

4. Statutory declaration

I, _____ do solemnly and sincerely declare that:

- I am covered by current Professional Indemnity Insurance that fully complies with the requirements of the Building Professionals Board Accreditation Scheme pursuant to s63 of the Building Professionals Act 2005 and Part 4 Division 2, clauses 10-14 of the Building Professionals Regulation 2007
- I will maintain the required fully compliant professional indemnity insurance during any period of accreditation granted by the Board and I will provide evidence of this insurance to the Board upon request
- I will notify the Board in writing within seven days of any change in my professional indemnity insurance which may be relevant to my accreditation
- I have fully complied with the Building Professionals Board's Continuing Professional Development requirements as set out in Schedule 5 of the Accreditation Scheme.

I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the provisions of the Oaths Act 1900.
